

A traditional illustration of the Nativity scene. The Virgin Mary is seated on the left, wearing a red robe and a white veil, cradling the infant Jesus in her arms. The infant is wrapped in white swaddling clothes. To the right, Joseph stands, wearing a purple robe over a white tunic, holding a wooden staff. They are positioned in a stable or manger, with a pile of straw on the ground. The background shows a dark, starry night sky with a bright star, and a village with white buildings and a stone archway in the distance. The overall color palette is dominated by dark blues, purples, and reds.
